

Partners

Partnering with LifeNet Health not only means access to the nation's largest nonprofit, full-service alloengineering bank; it puts at your disposal a vast network of experienced bio-implant specialists who inspire the attentive confidence of a one-on-one relationship. As a partner, you are a critical part of our mission and our growth and we want to thank you for helping LifeNet Health succeed every day. Because of you, we are helping patients live longer, healthier, more active lives. Critical to this mission are our core values of quality, innovation, service, and professionalism that allow us to provide the highest standards in tissue banking, donor and transplant services.
